Syntron Material Handling Receives ISO 9001-2015 Certification

We are pleased to announce that SMH has achieved certification to the new ISO 9001:2015 Quality Management System, reflecting our long-term commitment to quality, transparency, and customer satisfaction. Andy Blanchard, CEO, stated, "We are extremely proud of our commitment to quality. The new 2015 version requires greater involvement of senior management, broader understanding of supply chains, and more focus on stakeholder expectations. This allows us to publicly communicate our dedication to excellence to our employees, our partners, and our customers." The certification is valid for three years and is provided by DNV GL - Business Assurance.
